

IDENTIFYING RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES AND FINDING FUNDING WORKSHOP OUTLINE

Sponsored by CAFE, Presented by the Office of the VCR
Wednesday, October 3, 2018, 4-5pm, Carver-Turner Room, Havener Center

GENERAL

- generating and maintaining keyword lists for your work (general and specific)
- strategies for managing email digests and funding updates
- DISCLAIMER regarding the necessity of tracking all links back to agency/foundation's official announcements/updates/information page

PIVOT (<https://pivot.cos.com/>)

- claiming/updating your profile
- using Advanced search options to customize your search
 - figure out path (keyword option)
 - funding type
- searching for potential collaborators
- saving/tracking searches

GRANTS.GOV

- search capabilities
- opportunity update tracking
- subscribe to updates for identified opportunities

NSF (<https://www.nsf.gov/funding/>)

- setting up email digest specific to your research interests
(<https://public.govdelivery.com/accounts/USNSF/subscriber/new?qsp=823>)
- "Recent Awards" database and map functionality (bottom of program solicitation page)
 - identifying research recently funded by this agency
 - searching for potential collaborators

NIH (<https://grants.nih.gov/funding/searchguide/index.html>)

- setting up email digest specific to your research interests
(<https://service.govdelivery.com/accounts/USNIH/subscriber/new>)
- RePORTER functionality (<https://projectreporter.nih.gov/reporter.cfm>)
 - identifying research recently funded by this agency
 - searching for potential collaborators