

Grant Recipient

Dr. Ali Rownaghi
Assistant Professor (NTT)
ChBE Department

Activities

- ❖ What did you do?
 - Presented two posters
 - Initiated two potential collaborative projects
 - Represented the University of Missouri system at Great Plain Catalysis Society
- ❖ Who did you meet with or network with?
 - Researchers from both academia and industry
 - NSF program director

Proposal

- ❖ Dates/location of the meeting
 - June 23 - 28, 2019 | Chicago, Illinois
 - NAM26
- ❖ Itemized budget request
 - $1,000 to partially support conference registration fees
- ❖ Why did you choose this trip, meeting, etc.?
 - NAM is the most important conference in the field of catalysis attended by the world leading scientists and engineers from academia, government, and industry.

Outcomes

- ❖ Anticipated benefits of the trip.
 - Pitch ideas to be submitted to funding agencies
 - New collaboration with research and teaching faculties at another institutions for working on a joint research and education project
- ❖ Expected follow-on activities.
 - One collaborative proposal to be submitted in the next few months
 - Submission of a proposal to NSF