Dr. Jason Murphy
Assistant Professor
Mathematics & Statistics

Activities

- ❖ Attended 12th American Institute of Mathematical Sciences Conference on Dynamical Systems, Differential Equations and Applications in Taipei, Taiwan.
 - Organized a special session on “Recent progress in nonlinear dispersive PDE” with B. Dodson (Johns Hopkins).
 - Gave a talk in the special session “Nonlinear Evolution Equations”

Proposal

- ❖ AIMS conference, July 5-9, 2018, in Taipei, Taiwan
- ❖ CAFE funds helped to pay for airfare, registration, and hotel.
- ❖ This large international meeting drew mathematicians from all over the world.

Outcomes

- ❖ Gave two presentations related to my research; attended many other talks.
- ❖ Organized a special session.
- ❖ Met with many of my current collaborators (S. Masaki, J. Segata, B. Dodson, D. Mendelson, J. Zheng, ...)
- ❖ Met new mathematicians with related research interests.
